

In this election I
find the actions of Sinclair
Broadcasting
disgusting and un American. I resent
that my nations
common property is being used in this
illegal manner.
Sinclair must be put on notice that their efforts to affect the 2004
election shall not be tolerate.

Thank you for your attention,
Chris King

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to
air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election
is a clear example
of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the
public airwaves free
of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies
control the
airwaves, we get more of what's good
for the bottom line
and less of what we need for our democracy. Instead of something
produced at "News
Central" far away,
it's more important
that we see real people from our own
communities and more
substantive news
about issues that matter.

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license

renewal process
needs to involve
more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
